DELEGATE RULEBOOK

MESSAGE FROM ORGANIZING TEAM

Ever wondered how different news channels manage to present the same event in different lights? Whether they are victimising the accused or accusing the victim? What is the truth?

Well, we are giving you a chance. Not to see the truth, but to show the truth. The truth that favours your cause. If you are an avid debater or public speaker, come and show your efficiency. If not, come and try to outperform the experienced ones. First time or not, BlithMUN is the perfect place to test skills like critical thinking, confidence, oratory, debating, writing, teamwork and leadership. Meet people like you, who think critically, speak convincingly and compel you to do the same. Dig deep and research on the agenda from the point of view of the country you are representing. Knowledge of civics and current affairs is a must. Prove yourself right, or get proved wrong. This isn't about being on the right side, but making your side right.
